“स्व से आभा तक”

About Swa se Abha Tak

On the occasion of 75th Independence Day and Sri Aurobindo's 150th birth anniversary AURO University has launched a mission Involving the young generation for the transformation of the nation for participating in the developmental process by organising a national camp named 'स्व से आभा तक' from Swaraj to AatmaNirbhar Bharat Tak, in collaboration with Association of Indian Universities. India is a young country, and our country's youth is the rarest of its nature as we stand on the ground of culture while keeping our head to modern technology and transformation. Aatmanirbharta is not a destination where we have to reach, it's a journey towards becoming self-reliant, self-sufficient and a leading example for the world and future generations. We believe that there is a lot of untapped potential among the Indian youths however they lack opportunity to showcase, sharpen and develop their talents. This is an opportunity for all of you to 'Come Learn and Grow'.
